Hi Sarah,

If you speak with BDV can you tell her that

We obliged. We didn't send out a press release or anything, but we did out a statement on the website that she should be made aware of. It was approved by josh before it went up:

The announcement made today by the President is one more example of his commitment to rolling back the unrealistic and overreaching regulatory actions by the previous Administration," said Secretary DeVos. "President Trump is making good on his promise to put America and American workers first.
